LATER TELEGRAMS.

The steamer Thales, which arrived yesterday morning at 10 o'clock brings the following late telegrams:—

THE WAR BETWEEN FRANCE AND PRUSSIA.

London, Oct. 18th, 4.55 p.m. (F.A.M.). Four thousand Prussians and 150 guns were captured at Solism.

The capitulation of Solism gives the Germans the second railway to Paris.

An Atlantic cable from Paris to London has been laid to facilitate the communication of the war.

General Bourkhal has been appointed to command the army of the North.

The Aide de Camp from Marshal Bazaine has had two interviews with Count Bismarck.

The Armistice of the Loire is daily receiving reinforcements.

The Prussians have destroyed the railway bridge at Baugency (7 leagues), and afterwards crossed the river at different points.

The Official Journal of Paris gives full particulars of the brilliant sortie on the 13th at Baugency.

London, October 18th, (Morning).

The Prussian battle attack and captured the small town of Montdidier, and levied a contribution of 50,000 francs.

The Prussians have occupied Vreux (7 leagues), 27 miles from Vesunna (P. Beaumont).

A great battle is expected in the Loire.

The French are being strongly reinforced.

The Prussian conditions of peace.

It is stated that the French conditions of peace proposed through Count Bismarck are an indemnity of 80 millions sterling; the neutralization of Alsace and Lorraine; and a general armistice.

The German Journal of St. Petersburg says that the conditions he has offered to the French are acceptable by M. de Bismarck.

The German forces in France are estimated at 650,000 men.

London, Oct. 18th, (Afternoon).

The Liverpool Cotton market is active.

In the Manchester market business is checked by holders saving advanced prices.

7 lbs. Shirts, 7s. 10d.

40's Mule Twist, 1s. 4d.

The Berlin Ministerial newspapers recommend the nation to receive the news of peace with satisfaction.

The French, they say, must first be convinced of their own need of peace, and of the necessity of accepting the German conditions.

The board of all the Parisians begins next week.

The German have taken Chateau, after ten days' resistance.

M. Gambetta has returned to Paris.

General Bourkhal has gone to take command in the North.

The German have taken the city of a contribution of 600,000 francs.

London, Oct. 18th, (Evening).

Tues. Evening.—A diplomatic circular of the Prussian Government of the 10th October, rejects the responsibility of the war, and declares that France without peace, and declares that France without peace, and declares that France without peace.

There are rumors that Metz has capitulated.

LABOR AND CAPITAL.

(New York Tribune).

Every time a "Labor Convention" is held anywhere, somebody gets up and says "Amor" and denounces capital as a "despotic and tyrannical" thing.

This sort of thing is repeated at a labor meeting in Chicago, and at the other night, a person by the name of Traveler said: "It would not be denied that capital was not built with labor, and labor to bow to its own tyrant."

Now the rise of this sort of sophistry is that, although capital partly comes of labor, the proposition that labor is the owner of the capitalist, his energy, thrift, prudence, industry, and the like, are all denied.

Mr. Phillips is reported to be a man of fortune. How did he get it? He certainly has not got it with his hands. He has made the money by the exercise of his great intellectual gifts, but he has got it, suppose a politician could knock at his door some fine morning and request him to divide. What a lovely speech he would deliver to show them that they were preferring quite an unreasonable demand.

The French General Douay was buried at Wiesbaden the day after the Germans captured the town. He was killed by a bullet in the chest. His body was followed to the grave by an entire regiment of infantry and a battery of artillery, and the last man was fired by a whole company. On the way to the grave, the General played the French national hymn, and, returning after the burial, the popular song Die Marseillaise was sung.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

NOVEMBER 17th, MONDAY.

The drug market is quiet and weak, with a small active demand at the following prices:—

The 10th Opium sale of this year was held at Calcutta on the 13th October, when 2,500 chests of Patna and 1,800 chests of Benares were sold at the following prices:—Patna, 1,125 to 1,135; Benares, 1,125 to 1,135; average 1,130. The results show an advance on the 18th of 100 to 150 for Patna, and 100 to 150 for Benares. After the sale the market remained steady for a day or two, but soon after the receipt of the 20th of 20th September, via Calcutta, the market fell for Patna to 1,110, but for Benares it remained firm at 1,115, since which time it has been on an upward tendency; market dull. Questions on 31st October.—Patna 1,175, Benares 1,115 per chest.
